

Become a Select Partner

Real Reasons to Become Select

Do you want to be able to take advantage of substantial savings on Cisco Small Business products, boost your profitability as well as become a trusted advisor to your customers?

If so, then now is the time to become a Cisco Select Certified Partner.

Select is a world wide certification for partners selling to small and medium sized businesses.

The Cisco Select Certification provides a comprehensive offering of products, solutions, incentive programs, marketing tools and support resources all developed to assist you in penetrating the small business market.

It is the first step on to the Cisco Certification Program and recognizes your commitment to the small business market and your investment in SMB expertise. Select Certification can be your first step on a journey with Cisco that can lead to Premier, Silver and Gold Certification levels, or, if you choose, it can simply be your destination.

By becoming a certified Select Partner, you will gain access to a range of benefits that will help you be more productive with Cisco in the SMB Market.

Reasons Why You Should Become a Cisco Select Certified Partner

So, why wait?

The Cisco Select Partner Program is not just about helping you sell Cisco whilst earning more profit.

It is also about opening the door to new market opportunities whilst fulfilling your customers' needs and meeting their expectations.

Now is the time to help your customers whilst boosting your sales and profit margins – simply by becoming a Cisco Select Partner.
